

Good afternoon, (sir or ma'am)

My name is _____, nice to meet you _____. Im with a group of young people from Reaching Hearts Int. This afternoon, we have some gifts to share with each home in the community. In this package, you will receive a book called Steps to Christ. You will read beautiful chapters on prayer, faith, and how to obtain forgiveness and experience salvation. You will find beautiful promises from the word of God. There is also a book on health, showing you how to prevent and treat diabetes, hypertension, and how to lower your cholesterol. I would also like to share a word of prayer with you. If you have any prayer requests we can prayer for them now and also write them down so the group can continue to prayer over them? Is it ok to pray right now?
